

A minimalist map of Lannevesi, Finland. The map is enclosed in a thick black rectangular border. It shows the coastline of the lake with a solid black line. Several small, light gray areas represent islands or peninsulas. A thin gray line points from the text 'LANNEVESI' to a specific location on the southern shore. The text 'SUOMI' is centered below the lake name, and the coordinates '62.3625°N / 25.2350°E' are at the bottom.
